(U) Former POTUS George W. Bush Visits CIA; Thanks Employees, CTC Shows Appreciation

On 4 March, former President George W. Bush visited Headquarters as part of his trip to Washington, D.C. for the annual CIA Officers Memorial Foundation Dinner. After receiving an intelligence briefing with Director Brennan, the 43rd President toured the Counterterrorism Center, greeted Agency employees, and met with a small group of officers for coffee and hot chocolate at the Starbucks in the Headquarters cafeteria. When asked what he missed the most about being President, Bush said, “I miss having the opportunity to meet with and thank employees at agencies like the CIA for their dedication and service.”
